Construction Update Meeting for the Folly Road at Camp Road Intersection Improvements Project

Charleston County will hold a community meeting Thursday, Jan. 26 from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m. at Fort Johnson Middle School. Staff will provide the public with a construction update for the Folly Road at Camp Road Intersection Improvements project on James Island.

Members of the community are encouraged to attend the community meeting to learn about upcoming phases of construction and hear from the project team. There is no formal presentation and the meeting will be an open house format.

Date: Thursday, Jan. 26
Time: 5:30 to 7:00 p.m. – Open House
Location: Fort Johnson Middle School, 1825 Camp Rd, Charleston, SC 29412

Individuals who are unavailable to attend the community meeting can attend an online meeting starting Jan. 23. by visiting www.follyatcamp.com.

The Folly Road at Camp Road Intersection Improvements Project on James Island involves improvements to Folly Road from about 1,000 feet south of Camp Road to the intersection with Eugene Gibbs Street and Rivers Point Row, and improvements to Camp Road from West Madison Avenue to Oyster Point Row. Improvements will relieve traffic congestion and localized flooding by adding turn lanes and upsizing drainage pipes. Bike lanes and sidewalks will also be added.

Visit the official website at <http://roads.charlestoncounty.org> for public meeting notices and up-to-date news and information about all Charleston County Transportation Sales Tax road projects. Anyone with questions about the project can call Charleston County's Transportation Development Department at (843) 202-6140.
